Introduction:

In order to become eligible partner where there is an exchange of funding resources, an entity has to participate in this due diligence review process. Its main aim is to ensure that Field Ready is equipped with the necessary information about the capacity of partners, and is able to identify the most suitable modalities and scale of assurances that can be applied to the management of funding granted to them.

The present form contains a checklist and declarations that is an essential part of this procedure. To complete the assessment and obtain eligibility, all sections must be completed satisfactorily and submitted along with the required attachments. After a review of documents submitted, the entity will be informed on whether their application will proceed. Additional information may be needed should the documentation provided by the prospective partner not be deemed sufficient.

Declaration of Conflict of Interest

1. Definition:

Conflict of Interest - A situation in which professional or objective judgment, or behaviour concerning a primary interest (in this case the integrity of Field Ready) has been improperly influenced by a different interest (such as, but not limited to, financial gain) by a contractor, employee or implementing partner of the United Nations (and/or his/her immediate family, close relatives or personal friends).

2. Filling the Declaration of Conflict of Interest:

This declaration of Conflict of Interest shall be retained in a secure file at Field Ready for the duration of three years after completion of this procedure, after which it will be destroyed under the direction of Field Ready.

Any information provided in the disclosure statement will be treated as confidential.

3. Failure to Complete the Declaration of Conflict of Interest

Completion of this Declaration of Conflict of Interest is a requirement for selection, award and appointment of contracts with Field Ready. Failure to comply with this Declaration of Conflict of Interest may be considered cause for removal as a candidate for selection of contracts.

4. Field Ready Response to the Declaration of Conflict of Interest

A disclosure made by an individual that upon review does not appear to constitute an issue of sufficient magnitude to warrant further action will be retained in a secure file as noted in section 2 (above).

An individual who has made a disclosure that upon review does appear to constitute an issue of sufficient magnitude to warrant further action will be so informed in writing.

The individual will have the opportunity to fully present his or her view of the situation (by letter, teleconference, or other agreed upon means). If it is determined that the disclosure poses a conflict of interest or could create a substantial perception of a conflict of interest, the individual will be asked to withdraw voluntarily from the contracting process or from the service that he or she currently performs on behalf of Field Ready.

Should the individual decline to withdraw, the matter will be escalated to the senior management of Field Ready. The individual shall have the opportunity (by letter, teleconference, or other agreed upon means) to state the grounds upon which he or she believes that the Director of Field Ready should reverse the decision. If the Head of Office decides not to alter the earlier determination, he/she shall have the right to terminate the individual's contract application or service to Field Ready.

Appendix C Declaration of Organizational Alignment with Field Ready

1.	Ex	ola	na	ıtic	n:

It is important that Field Ready's partners understand, respect and follow universal norms and standards.
Completion of this Declaration is a requirement for selection and agreement of an exchange of resources with Field
Ready. Violations of this agreement will result in termination of the partnership with Field Ready.

2. Declaration of Organizational Alignment with Field Ready
Humanitarian principles: The [Organization Name] already or is fully able to subscribe to common humanitarian principles including humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence (found in a number of initiatives, most notably the Core Humanitarian Standard). If the organization is not explicitly an aid, development or humanitarian organization, nothing in the organization's mandate, charter, aims, policies and practices prohibits the organization from deviating from these.
Safeguarding/Protection: The [Organization Name] does its utmost to provide an environment that ensure a safe environment that is free from harassment, sexual abuse and exploitation and other forms of behavior that violate protection norms. This extends to all staff members, beneficiaries and the local populace alike. It includes the requirement that knowledge of issues that violate safeguarding of any persons, oblige mandatory reporting. The organization has written policies in place to which all staff members agree about this critical issue (or is willing to sign Field Ready's robust policies).
Non-discrimination: The [Organization Name] does not discriminate in its recipients of services on the basis of a person's race, political orientation, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, marital status, veteran status, or mental or physical disability or any other status prohibited by applicable law. Field Ready will not support any program which requires exposure, adherence to, or conversion to any religious doctrine in order to be a beneficiary of the program.
Limits to activities: Under the laws and customs applicable to the organization or under the organization's governing instruments, the organization does not: • engage to any substantial extent in activities that are not for charitable, scientific or educational purposes; or • engage to any substantial extent in attempts to influence legislation; or • participate or intervene, directly or indirectly, in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
